

Moving Toward Sustainability™

Install Furniture While Protecting the Building and the Environment.

No more Masonite®. Protect all finishes without dust and debris.

Furniture companies must finish the sale with outstanding delivery, installation and future service work. So why clutter up the building with ugly and inefficient Masonite, flimsy cardboard and worthless carpet shield? With GDoe, you can quickly lay down or vertically install durable, earth-friendly protection that looks great, creates no mess, and—except for the tape—is reusable for years on future projects.

Marring a finish is expensive and damaging to your reputation. GDoe is tough and versatile. It doesn't wear out, and you can even power wash it. GreenDominion's GDoe Floor boards cover a larger area, allowing for two-way furniture traffic in lobbies and hallways, and our GDoe vertical panels protect walls, corners, elevators, doors, glass and other vertical surfaces without producing dust or airborne pollutants.

When you're done, transport/store GDoe on their custom A-Frame carts. The longer you use GDoe, the more consumables costs you avoid.

GDoe™ not just better products — it's a better way of doing things

“The look, the feel and the ease of application of the GDoe products were what got me at first. The fact that the protection was perfect and did not have to be replaced or readjusted sealed the deal. At the end of my 800-office install, we easily pulled the tape off, lined them back up on their carts and rolled them away for another day. I love being more green.”
